

The NSW Health, Education Centre Against Violence (ECAV) would like to invite all Aboriginal men, both community members and service providers, to attend

Strong Aboriginal Men Community Forum & Finding Strength: Responses to Men's Family Violence in Aboriginal Communities Forum

Date: 19th – 23rd August 2019
Venue: Lake Burrendong
Free to Attend

All food and accommodation will be paid for, please provide your own transport.

This Forum will provide an opportunity for Aboriginal Men from across the State to come together and discuss the issues presenting in their communities.

Men will also have an opportunity to be involved in attending the Finding Strength: Responses to Men's Family Violence in Aboriginal Communities Forum (run by No to Violence and Mission Australia in partnership with ECAV) which will be running on the Thursday and Friday of the Forum.

Accommodation and Food are provided with karaoke and films on Tuesday and Wednesday Nights. Camp oven food and a formal dinner provided.

Strong Aboriginal Men (ECAV), No To Violence and Dubbo Mission Australia are committed to providing education, awareness and promotion to our communities on the issues facing Aboriginal Men in today's society. This 4 day program aims to bring men from across NSW together to discuss important Men's Business as well as provide opportunities for connection and empowerment.

There will be designated smoking areas available each day, however we encourage participants to only access these areas during break times.

PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS AN ALCOHOL & DRUG FREE EVENT
